Inpatient Obstetric Nursing Exam Review

8:30 AM – 4:30 PM  Check in at 8:15 AM

Location:
Upstate AHEC – Training Room
104 South Venture Drive – Greenville, SC

Purpose:
To assist participants to prepare to take the NCC Inpatient OB Certification Examination or to refresh their skills.

Who Should Attend:
Registered Nurses who plan to take the NCC Inpatient OB Certification Examination. This is also an excellent review of inpatient obstetrics for the novice, as well as seasoned obstetrics RN, looking for a comprehensive review of inpatient obstetrics.

Fee:
$225 for Non-Members; $50 for AHEC Members

Faculty: Jeffrey Fouche-Camargo, DNP, APRN, WHNP-BC, RNC-OB, C-EFM
Dr. Jeffrey Fouche-Camargo is an assistant professor of nursing at Georgia Gwinnett College in Lawrenceville, Ga. He graduated cum laude from the Medical College of Georgia with a bachelor of science in nursing in 1994. He obtained his master of science degree in nursing from Georgia State University in 2003, with a dual-specialization in perinatal nursing and women’s health nurse practitioner, and his doctorate of nursing practice degree at Georgia Regents University in 2014.

He speaks nationally on topics like fetal heart monitoring, obstetric emergency and critical care, and inpatient obstetric certification review. He is board-certified as a women’s health nurse practitioner, certified in inpatient obstetric nursing and holds a certificate of added qualification in electronic fetal monitoring from the National Certification Corporation.
Objectives
1. Develop a study plan for the exam based on understanding the blueprint and domains of practice covered.
2. Describe the impact of disease processes and risk factors on the pregnant woman and her growing fetus.
3. Describe various antepartum fetal testing methods and their interpretation.
4. Identify EFM patterns using NICHD terminology.
5. Describe the use of intermittent auscultation and its role in fetal assessment.
6. Describe normal physiology of labor.
7. Identify nursing interventions to support the laboring woman.
8. Describe common obstetric procedures used during labor and delivery.
9. Describe the most common obstetric complications encountered during labor and delivery.
10. Describe the anatomical and physiological changes that occur following birth.
12. Describe basic legal and professional issues surrounding professional nursing practice.

The information presented in this review course is taken directly from the examination content outline. Everyone has a different capacity for learning and for taking tests – therefore, completion of this course is not a guarantee that the registrant will pass the exam. Test-taking strategies will be discussed during the program. But this course, along with experience and study, ensures that everyone who takes the exam has the necessary knowledge base needed both to pass successfully, and even more importantly, to provide quality care to patients.

Eligibility Requirements
- Current licensure as an RN in the U.S. or Canada
- 24 months Inpatient OB experience as a U.S. or Canadian RN comprised of a minimum of 2000 hours (This must have occurred sometime in your career) Specialty experience can be comprised of direct patient care, education, administration or research.
- Employed in Inpatient OB sometime in the last 24 months
- Both practice time and hours must be met. This is not a either/or criterion.
- Complete details are in the CORE RNC Examination Registration Catalog.

Information about NCC Certification exams and test sites can be found at www.nccwebsite.org.
Credit

Licensed Nurses: Upstate AHEC is an approved provider of continuing nursing education by the South Carolina Nurses Association, an accredited approver by the American Nurses Credentialing Center’s Commission on Accreditation. Upon successful completion of this program, attendees will receive 13 contact hours.

Successful completion of the program requires attendance for at least 90 percent of the course and a completed evaluation by the participant.

Participants may register in the following ways:

Online (preferred) www.upstateahec.org  Call 864-349-1160

To Register for a Class Online:

- Visit our classes page to view all of the Upstate AHEC classes available at this time.
- Click on the class you wish to register for and scroll to the bottom of that page under MEMBER TYPE. Choose either (a) the “Consortium Member” link or (b) the “Non-Consortium Member”. To learn if your employer is a consortium member, click here.
- Click the “Add to Cart” button.
- When you have selected all the courses that you wish to attend, choose the “Checkout with PayPal” button. This step is necessary to move you to the “Checkout” page even if you DO NOT owe a registration fee.
- Enter all contact information requested on the “Checkout” page and click “Submit Order”.
- The next page will give you an order number. If you have registered for a course(s) with no fees, your registration is complete and you need only click on “Submit Order”!
- If you have registered for a class with a fee, you will need to click on “Confirm Order”. This will take you to the PayPal Website.
- Once these steps are complete, you will receive two emails. The first email will be a notification of your registration and the second email will be a notification that your registration is complete.

Refunds: No refunds will be given if request is received less than 48 hours prior to the workshop. Substitutions will be accepted. Registration fees will be refunded if a workshop is canceled.

Upstate AHEC is committed to a policy of nondiscrimination involving equal access to education and employment opportunity to all, regardless of sex, race, age, religion, color, national origin or disability.

ADA: If you need any of the auxiliary aids or services identified in the Americans with Disabilities Act in order to participate in this program, call (864) 349-1160 or ltaylor@upstateahec.org.