Certified Nurse Educator (CNE) Examination Preparation Course

April 25, 2018 // 8:30 am - 4:00 pm // Check in @ 8:15 am
Training Room // Upstate AHEC // 104 South Venture Drive, Greenville, SC

Target Audience:
This course is designed for Nurse Educators preparing to take the CNE (Certified Nurse Educator) exam and working in Associate Degree, BSN or Graduate programs.

This course is also suitable for nursing faculty members in schools of nursing who meet the criteria for certification and wish to prepare the examination as well as other interested nursing faculty. Nurse educators in the hospital setting would need to check the eligibility requirements on the National League of Nursing website.

The CNE review course is designed to provide a review of content related to the test blueprint. This course is designed to facilitate learning for potential candidates and to allow the candidates to recognize areas where additional attention may be necessary.

For answers to questions about the eligibility requirements and completed details, please check the National League of Nursing website.

Learning Outcomes:
At the conclusion of this program, participants will be able to -
• Delineate eligibility requirements.
• Discuss the role of nurse educator as a facilitator of learning.
• Analyze learner development and socialization.
• Delineate assessment and evaluative strategies.
• Describe test item analyses.
• Explore curriculum design and program outcomes.
• Understand the importance of quality improvement in an academic role.
