COURSE DESCRIPTION

Motivational interviewing is a counseling method that helps people resolve ambivalent feelings and insecurities to find the motivation they need to change their behavior. It is a practical, empathetic, and short-term process that takes into consideration how difficult it is to make life changes. This program is designed to teach participants of all experience levels how to apply the general principles of motivational interviewing, understand the stages of change, and explain the 21 solution-oriented techniques to help evoke behavioral change.

OBJECTIVES

At the conclusion of this program, participants will be able to:

- Describe strategies for evoking change talk.
- Review stages of change.
- Compare Solutions Oriented Therapy to other approaches.
- Review 21 Solution Oriented techniques.

INSTRUCTIONS

A link and directions will be sent to all registered participants 1-2 days prior to the program to log into WebEx. Please ensure you have the correct email entered into our system when completing the registration process.
