

2022 Virtual SC FASD Summit: Think Before You Drink...

Virtual via WebEx

Every Thursday in September

9:00 AM - 11:00 AM

Course Description

The focus of this September FASD Summit is to bring awareness of FASD and prevention through education. There is no treatment for FASD, the only prevention is to not consume alcohol during pregnancy. Speakers will present on what is FASD, how to assess and diagnose it, common myths and misperceptions, impact of FASD on the child and adult/caregivers and systems of supports.

The Summit is open to all and targeted to healthcare providers, social services, home visitors, educators, first responders, the community and others.
